ROBIN HOOD WILL NOT PLAY TONIGHT

Company's Scenery Car Has Gone Astray and Cannot Be Found.

Manager John Fitzpatrick, of Jackon's Theatre announced to-day that it will be impossible to give the permance of Robin Hood, scheduled for this evening. The car containing all the company scenery and costumes has gone astray. It cannot be recovered in time for the performance to-1 ight. All who have purchased tickets may have money refunded upon application at the box office.

DOG SHOW POINTERS

Only a Few Days Remain for Submission of Entries

LOCAL INTEREST AROUSED

No event scheduled for the immediate future in this city is looked forward to with more genuine interest han the coming bench show of the Bridgeport Kennel Club to be held at he Park City Rink in State street lear the winter quarters, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 and 2. The club has gone to treat expense to make this show one of the finest of its kind that will take any where this season. The any where this season. The to be offered are of the finest he readers of this newspaper are ty familiar with the gifts and the airsady familiar with the gifts and the denors.

It behooves the public to show an interest in this undertaking in order that it may be made an annual intitution. The club has decided to give the people a great show and it may necessarily been compelled to go a big expense. It believes that the mublic will appreciate its efforts by urning out in generous numbers. Only mose who are familiar with bench those can realize the work that is intalled in providing a city with a rest class exhibition.

Bridgeport is to be honored on this reasion by the appearance here of country. The entries must be mailed to go without delay sending the necessary information to the secretary of the dub. W. O. Blatz, P. O. Box 218, r to D. D. Smith, treasurer at his gun nop. 44 Fairfield avenue.

D. D. Smith, treasurer at his gun 44 Fairfield avenue. al people especially ladies owning Local people especially ladies owning logs are interested for there has never en a show where so many desirable ophies have been offered for local nines. The superintendent of the low is Mr. George B. Hair, which issures the best of care of the stock where can arrange with Mr. Hair ther to leave their stock in the builder during the show or take them one nights, just as suits their connience. Too much importance can of be given the local end of this explicition and if possible every local dog wher should assist in making this the statempt of the club, a success in der that the city may have one evyyear.

DIED.

GABBETT-In this city, Sept. 19, Mary A., daughter of Patrick and Mary A., daughter of Patrick and Mary labbett, aged 16 years.
—Friends are invited to attend the uneral from the residence of the agents, No. 254 Coleman street, on Wednesday, Sept. 22, at 8:30 a. m. and from St. Augustine's church at Interment at St. Michael's cemetery.

ULLIVAN—In this city, Sept. 19, 1909, Catherine A., daughter of Ellen and the late Patrick Sullivan.
and the late Patrick Sullivan.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral from her late residence, No. 28 Beach street, on Wednesday, Sept. 22, at 8:30 a. m., and from St. Charles' church at 9 a. m.

—Interment at Milford, Conn.

MONUMENTS

ant operated by pneumatic cut-and polishing tools. HUGHES & CHAPMAN. 890 STRATFORD AVENUE. R 19 tt

HAWKINS Flowers

PALMS, FERNS, CUT FLOWERS AND FLORAL DESIGNS TRATFIELD HOTEL BUILDING

> JUST ARRIVED CHINESE SACRED

> > LILLIES

3 for 35c

JOHN RECK & SON rel. 759-8. 985 MAIN STREET

ETRURIA LEAVES

On Way to Visit Etruria Sheriff Hawley, Deputy Richards and State's Attorney Judson Are Almost Shipwrecked.

To-day, the last day of the Etruria's visit to this city, was spent quietly by the officers and crew. There were few visitors aboard the boat, except in-visitors aboard the boat, except invited guests.

Commander Casalino invited Deputy Sheriff Louis Richards, Miss Louise Richards, James V. Massey and Vice-Consul Riccio of New Haven, to take dinner aboard the Etruria.

Following dinner the officers of the ship, with the invited guests came to the city and were joined by Attorney and Mrs. Louis Petruccelli. The whole party then got into automobile and were taken to some of the adjoining towns about Bridgeport and finally to New Haven where they will be the guests of S. Z. Poli at his home tonight. The Etruria will sail to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock for New York.

York.

A few of the sailors on board the Etruria will be entertained at Arion hall by the members of some of the local Italian societies. An incident occurrence which furhall by the members of some of the local Italian societies. An incident occurred yesterday afternoon which furnished an opportunity for the gallantry of the Italian sailors to be praised. Deputy Sheriff Elchards. Sheriff Sidney Hawley, Deputy Sheriff Sidney Hawley and several others boarded a private launch to visit the Etruria. The charge was paid, but shortly after the boat stopped and refused to go on. The sea was rough and after a few minutes of waiting the men holsted their handkerchiefs and yelled through a megaphone for help. Soon a boat was seen coming from the Etruria and in a short time the stranded men were rescued from their balky launch and taken aboard the Etruria where they were treated royally by Commander Casalino. Deputy Sheriff Richards gothis five spot too. The gasoline had given out.

DEATH OF GOVERNOR JOHN A. JOHNSON

(Continued from First Page.)

Democratic candidate for vice-president, and was followed by Governor Higgins, of Rhode Island.

In the meantime it had appeared that the leaders had decided that the that the leaders had decided that the nomination ought not to go an Eastern man, but to the great middle states, and had decided upon Kern of Indiana. Under these circumstances the name of Mr. McNeil at his insistence was withdrawn and upon the motion of the Connecticut delegation the nomination of the way was made unanimous. Some Connecticut delegation the nomination of Kern was made unanimous. Some 200 delegates were pledged to McNeil, and it is probable inasmuch as Towne, and Howell had withdrawn that his vote would have been larger. It was understood that if the roll call reached Nebraska, that Mr. Bryan had requested the delegates from Nebraska to divide their eight bailots equally between the man from Indiana and the man from Connecticut.

The leaders of the Johnson forces in Connecticut were Dr. James A. McManus and Harry May, of Hartford. These gentlemen were members of the Connecticut delegation and were in constant communication with the Johnson forces in Denver. It was constant communication with the Johnson forces in Denver. It was they who arranged the understanding under which the Minnesota delegation voted for McNeil for vice president, and the Connecticut delegation yielded its place on the roll call so that Minnesota could offer the name of Governor Johnson.

Powerful In Politics

Johnson Was the Saviour of the Democratic Party in the Great Northwest.

When the time came to nominate a When the time came to nominate a Democratic candidate for Governor in 1904, the rank and file of the party in Minnesota was discouraged. The State was seemingly overwhelmingly Republican and Theodore Roosevelt. Republican and Theodore Roosevelt. the Republican Presidential candidate.

the Republican Presidential candidate, was at the zenith of his popularity in Minnesota. The name of Johnson was suggested to the Democratic convention as a good candidate for Governor, and the young editor was named to lead the forlorn hope.

So well did he lead, that although the Republican National ticket swept the State, John A. Johnson was elected Governor by a substantial plurality. His administration, also, was peculiarly successful, and he was re-elected in 1906 and again last fail.

ly successful, and he was re-elected in 1906 and again last fall.

The personality of Johnson was an important element in his cussess. Tall and angular, his hands still showing the callouses caused by his early labors, he was a "mixer" in the better sense of the word and his offices have been always open to all classes of citizens who, no matter what their desire, were always sure of a courteous hearing.

Johnson's claims for the Democratic Presidential nomination were advanc-ed by Henry Watterson two years ago, but the time seemed hardly ripe and but the time seemed hardly ripe and the leaders of the party in the nation failed to respond as well as the Southern editor desired. In fact, there is little doubt now that, had the Watterson boom been followed up by the endorsement of Johnson by the Eastern Democrats as was hoped, William J. Bryan would not have had the necessary two-thirds to nominate at Denver an July, 1908. But the Johnson movement was allowed to lag, with the result that he had but a few delegates when the convention nominated. gates when the convention nominated.
Two years ago the University of Pennsylvania conferred the degree of Doctor of Laws on Gov. Johnson. The Governor was married on June 1, 1894, to Elinor Preston, in St. Peter. The estate of Samuel G. Harris was filed to-day for inventory in the Pro-bate court and shows personal estate amounting to $7,238.84.

FOR NEW YORK NO SHAKEUP IS COMING

Horace Sheble, New Manager of Graphophone Company Outlines Future.

Macdonald Will be Consulting Engineer to Entire Plant as Well as Director

Report that Chief Executive by the Budlong Had Resigned His Position Is Denied

Horace Sheble, new general manager of the American Graphophone Comany, who succeeds Thomas H. Maclonald in charge of the company's works in this city, denied this morning a report that he had said that there was to be a general shakeup in the executive offices in this city. He tions of the world our conquest of the also defined the duties of Mr. Macdonald in the future. Rumor has had it that Herbert Budlong, the chief exeit that Herbert Budlong, the chief executive, had resigned on last Saturday and his resignation had taken effect at once. Rumor also stated that Irving W. Reed, the chief accountant, had been assigned to Mr. Budlong's position and was to conduct the two offices. Further it was stated that Purchasing Agent Clifford R. Gardner had resigned, his resignation to take effect Oct. 1, and that John Ray, a member of the executive board, had been assigned to the position.

General Manager Sheble when seen by a Farmer reporter stated that there was absolutely no truth in the report, and that they are not contemplating and that they are not contemplating changes in any of the officials of the concern except that he would take up the reigns of management in place of Mr. Macdonald. He said further that for many years the board of directors of the concern had locked the course! of the concern had lacked the counsel and advice of a practical man and for that reason Mr. Macdonald was electthat reason Mr. Macdonald was elected to the directorate. Through his inventions Mr. Macdonald has done more to further the art of the talking machine in the world than any other man, and the fact that his time was largely taken up in the experimental work necessary for the development of the machine that it was necessary that he should be relieved of the work of looking after the details of manuof looking after the details of manu-facture.

Tacture.

The experimental department at the plant in this city will be enlarged and will be in full charge of Mr. Macdonaid, who in the future will be the consulting engineer for the entire plant. Many new plans of operation are now contemplated and will be put in operation in the near future. Mr. Sheble was formerly a member of the manufacturing firm of Hawthorne & Sheble of Philadelphia, makers of talking maof Philadelphia, makers of talking ma-chines and parts of the machines for the trade. The plant was one of the largest of its kind in the country.

STEEPLE JIM TOO TOUGH TO KILL

Fell 75 Feet Once, But It Didn't Hurt Him-Reaches Bridgeport from Largest Clock Face.

Steeple Jim is in town with bells on. Parker of Boston, Mass. He has traveled all over the country and has had many thrilling escapes from death. The last one he had was in Larchmont, The last one he had was in Larchmont, New York, where he fell off the main mast of a 100 foot flag pole, 70 feet to the ground and never broke a bone. He was shaken up a little, he said, but was only in bed three weeks. Four times every year he paints the Colgate clock, the greatest clock in the world. He finished painting it this last time on Saturday. This clock is in Jersey City.

ALLEGED STABBER

ALLEGED STABBER
HELD IN $500 BAIL

Davis White, Who Was Badly Slashed, Will Live, it is Believed

In order to give more time for an investigation into the case of Joseph Wangyula of 203 Pine street, who cut Davis White, also known as Fehrer, of 179 Spruce street, last night, in Pine street, following a rew between the two men, Wangyula's case was continued until Thursday under $500 bonds in the city court today. White was found at Pine street and Hancock avenue early this morning with a long slash across the back of his head and several stab wounds in the neck and shoulders. White was taken to St. Vincent's hospital. He will recover.

Weather Indications

and family, then I do not care what comes."

The passengers apparently did not seem to care for the delay but were glad to be on the ground floor of the celebration. By 7:30 the Oscar II was literally surrounded with small craft. By 8 a. m., the Grand Republic and off on one of the cutters and the Oscar proceeded on her way.

The Grand Republic arrived at Quarantine at $2:35. Dr. Cook who was abourd the tug John K. Gilkinson, was put abourd the trails of the two will a long shah across the back of his head and shoulders. White was taken to St. Vincent's hospital. He will recover.

Weather Indications

Weather Indications

(Special from United Press.)

New Haven, Sept. 21.—Forecast:—Inreasing cloudiness and warmer tolight. Wednesday cloudy followed by

The tropical storm which we stated was central near New Orleans yesterday morning has moved northward and is now central near Little Rock, Ark. It has produced heavy rain and high winds in the lower Mississippi valley. Vicksburg, Miss., reported 3.78 inches of rainfall during the past 24 hours. An extended area of high presents of the past 24 hours. An extended area of high presents of the past 24 hours. New England will prevent storm from moving eastward very Conditions favor for this vicinity fair and warmer weather followed by rain on Wednesday.

WANTED: OWNER OF TWO GOWNS

George Halmath was arrested early this morning at East Main street and East Washington avenue by Patrolman Bolger. Halmath was carrying two dresses, one white and the other black and white. They appeared to have been taken from a clothes line. Halmath is held awaiting a claimant for the clothing. Bolger. Halmath was carrying

HORSE AND WAGON

STOLEN FROM FARMER. (Special from United Press.)
Pomfret, Conn., Sept. 21.—A brown horse and a truck wagon belonging to Ralph J. Sabin, a farmer, were stolen from his barn here some time during the night. No clue to the thieves has

FOX GOES TO BUFFALO.

Detective Fox went to Buffalo today to get George Taylor, the bell boy who stole about $150 from Joseph Bounoil Seot. 5. and skipped town.

A theatrical or the street committee, ordering the laying of permanent pavement on Fairfield avenue, between Water and Main streets. This report will now be turned over to the Paving commission who will specify what kind of Seot. 5. and skipped town.

Dave and Mrs. Jack will return to Fairfield avenue, between Water and Main streets. This report will now this city this afternoon about 5:30 be turned over to the Paving commission who will specify what kind of Seot. 5. and skipped town.

DR .COOK WILL FORCE PEARY TO ADMIT HE WAS SECOND TO POLE

(Continued from First Page.) The soldiers formed a flying wedge about Dr. Cook, his wife and children, and literally fought their way to the purricane deck of the vessel where Dr. Cook held an informal reception, shak-ing hands cordially with every man, woman and child on the deck. Many fought their way to his side and kiss-ed him. The crowd became so great that Mrs. Cook's veil was torn off, her hat knocked awry and she was almost pushed off her feet. Dr. Cook fared the same kind of treatment all the time the Grand Republic being surrounded by water craft of all descriptions as she proceeded up the bay, her siren shrieking a salute to every river craft. By the time the Grand Republic had entered the North River, Dr. Cook asked for a moment's silence and standing bareheaded on the hurricane deck of the boat, his voice drowned out completely every other moment by the blast from some passing steamer, he delivered the following short address:

address:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: To the returning explorer there is nothing so welcome as the appreciation of his own people. Your greeting to me today is all the more welcome to me because it shows in spite of all the controversy you have the following short England; to William McKinley when he was inaugurated President.

The Countess was an intimate friend of the late Sir John Franklin, who lost his life in search of the North Pole, and for this reason is especially interested in Dr. Cook.

day is all the more welcome to me because it shows in spite of all the controversy you believe me.

"I would have preferrred to have returned first to America but that was impossible and I had to go to Denmark. I was a stranger in a strange land. Yet they rose as one man and they have guaranteed to the other nations of the world our conquest of the

Dr. Cook and his wife and children Dr. Cook and his wife and children and the immediate members of his family were then escorted to a private cabin in which they remained in seclusion for the remainder of the trip. Instead of going direct to Brooklyn, the Grand Republic proceeded up the river to 134th street. As the Grand Republic passed the three French battled ips anchored in the river the French sailors manned the rails and gaze three justy cheers for the explorgaze three lusty cheers for the explor-er. The tri-color was dipped in sa-

DR. COOK THROWS ARMS ABOUT WIFE AND CHILDREN

New York, Sept. 21.—The Danish steamer Gscar II from Copenhagen, Christiana and Christiansand with Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the discoverer of the North Pole on board, arrived in Quarantine at 4:20 o'clock this morning. At sunrise the steamer was dressed in flags and preparations made to receive the committee expected on the Grand Republic. Dr. Cook was soon on the saloon deck among a group of passengers. He looked well with close cropped hair and mustache, his skin bronzed and when he smiled the gold filling of his teeth showed prominently. His manner was modest and unassuming.

He freely answered all questions, but would not enter into discussion of Peary's attitude, Peary's attitude.

"Dr. Cook, one matter I would like to ask about is have you your data with you?" "Yes." answered the explorer. "Then what matter does Mr. Whitney hold?" "Mr. Whitney has my instruments and some duplicate data. Mr. Whitney is a noble gentleman and can be trusted to speak the truth."

Dr. Cook made it very plain that the New York newspaper which is printing a serial account of the preliminaries to his polar trip will not be able to give the particulars of his final dash. He stated that all that will be published will be the account of the trip until the northernmost land was reached, the account of the dash to the pole being reserved until his book is published.

"The book is finished." he said. "I published.

"The book is finished." he said. "I had four months in the extreme north with nothing to do and I had much time on my hands. I went over all my notes and data and completed the work." he continued. He would not go into the discussion of Peary's charges but said he would wait until he met Peary. he met Peary.
"I have deplored the whole controversy and feel that nothing more should be said and will leave the pub-should be said and will leave the public to be the judge. I feel that the Danish people who have accepted me without question and have treated me so liberally, should be the first to receive the evidences of my work."

At 6:30 o'clock the steamer was surrounded by a number of tugs and small craft laden with people anxious to get a glimpse of the explorer. Dr. Cook continued:

"I was anxious to get home and in-

"I was anxious to get home and in-deed the steamer made good time over the smooth seas but wireless orders came to the captain to hold back until this morning. I want to see my wife and family, then I do not care what,

When the stairway was in place several tug passengers started to rush up to Dr. Cook but he waved them back. They retired with the exception of William Cook, the doctor's brother. They clasped hands and Dr. Cook said, "William, I'm glad to see you." But, as he spoke he was looking at Mrs. Cook and the children, down below. When William had cleared the gang-Cook and the children, down below. When William had cleared the gangway Dr. Cook rushed down the stairs. He threw his arms about his wife and she rested her face on his shoulder. In sight of the hundreds of passengers above, Dr. Cook kissed her. There were tears in her eyes as the doctor turned to Helen, his daughter. He last saw Helen when she was 2 years old and one of her bed time rites had been to kiss the doctor's picture. She put her arms about him and he encircled her with one arm and threw the other around Ruth.

During this greeting, the crowds on the liners were silent but as the family party moved toward the cabin of the tug a great cheer arose. Surrounding tugs began to whistle and the great throng suddenly realized that it had been awed by the meeting of the great explorer and his family.

When the Cook party left the tug to board the steamer Grand Republic, which was waiting loaded with thousands of Brooklynites, Dr. Cook pushed Mrs. Cook ahead of him toward the stairway leading from the tug deck. "You go before me," said Mrs. Cook. The Grand Republic crowd heard a short speech from the doctor on the second deck and then the band played all the way to Brooklyn. Its first greeting to Dr. Cook was the "Star second deck and then the band played all the way to Brooklyn. Its first greeting to Dr. Cook was the "Star Spangled Banner" followed by "Home Sweet Home." When Dr. Cook said good-bye to his fellow passengers on the Oscar II they all sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." A theatrical man offered Dr. Cook $6,000 to give a lecture Bunday afternoon and another Sunday evening.

HOWLAND'S

American consulate at Copenhagen to accompany Cook to America. "Some of the offers he received have been fabulous. Most of them came from America.

"I saw Dr. Cook in Denmark and I have spent many many hours with him working on the ship on the way to America. In all his private correspondence he has been as modest and gentle in his dealings as he has been with the public. He is a man who cannot lie."

FROM COUNTESS

REGISTER LIEN

The American Cash Register Co., then brought a suit for replevin against Taylor, claiming that the registers belonged to them. Judge Scott cites that the state provides that a conditional bill of sale must be recorded with the town clerk within a reasonable time is order to preserve the ventors.

with the town clerk within a reason-able time in order to preserve the ven-dors title as against an attaching creditor of the vendee. The plaintiff company failed in this. The court gave judgment for the defendant, who may keep the articles and to recover costs.

ENGINEER, FIREMAN

AND TRAMP KILLED

(Special from United Press.)

Concord, N. H., Sept. 21.—Enging

John Callshan and Fireman Parmeter, of the Quebec Express boand from Quebec to Boston, were killed near Canaan early to-day when their train crashed into the rear of the Central Vermont Express bound from Montreal for Boston. The body of an unknown tramp also was found beside the tracks bringing the number of dead to three. No one else was killed or seriously injured.

Takes Morning In

John Amesby of Black Rock, was the owner of a heifer which wander-ed from its accustomed haunts into the potato field of Andrew Figlar. The the potato field of Andrew Figlar. The potatoes were uprooted, and Figlar demanded $1 damages from Amesby refused so Figlar kept the helfer. Amesby sued for the return of the animal, the case being heard in the Common Pleas court, civil side this morning. The court withheld decision.

Deaths and Funerals.

The funeral of Frank A. Laubscher was held this atternoon from the residence of his aunt, Mrs. Charles T.

STORM SWEEPS

has not been confirmed. ASSAULT WITH

TWO ON TRIAL

(Special from United Press.)
Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 21.—It is reported here to-day that Greenville, Miss., is wrecked and that half the nouses in the town were unroofed by the terrific storm of last night. A number of lives are said to have been lost. Wires are down and the report

(Special from United Press.)
Meriden, Sept. 21.—Tony Bovino was arrested this morning charged with shooting Walter Lyke of New Haven

shooting Waiter Lyke of New Haven on September 14. Lyke who is a brakeman, entered Bovino's yard and the latter affirms that he was taking his grapes. Lyke was badly injured with buckshot and is now in a New Haven hospital. Bovino is held in $1,000 ball for assault with futent to kill.

(Special from United Press.)
Hartford, Sept. 21.—The criminal term of the superior court opened here this afternoon with Judge Lucien P.
Burpee on the bench. The docket is an extremely large one and includes one murder case, that of Peter Rubiak and John Sevrock, charged with killing Michael Wierdeck of Glastonbury last October. Both men were tried in December and sentenced to be hung, but the supreme court set aside the

The hearing on the nuisance exist-ing at Mill Hill and vicinity owing to the offensive odors arising from the Bridgeport By-Products Company will be held this evening in the council chamber in the city hall.

MILLINERY SHOWING.

LEE APPROVES RECORDS.

sentence and ordered a new trial.

INTENT TO KILL

FOR MURDER

GULF COAST

Common Pleas Court

Suit Over Heifer

BY QUEBEC EXPRESS

LAUREL WREATH

Bridgeport, Conn. Tuesday, Sept. 21, 1909.

The Weather-Cloudy and warmer tonight; rain tomorrow.

Tis a real style show.

brought to the store.

These show-days, planned especially for millinery, are really a complete style show.

They bring forward the newest wear-things of every sort. As is fitting, hats are the brightest feature. They crown the days that are thus set aside.

But with them, are shown equally - interesting wearables and fabrics in every section of We have picked with the best of our ability, worked with our greatest skill, and the assembly is the most-satisfying of any that ever an Autumn has

No more than this could be said, if we filled a whole page of your newspaper; we leave the details of the story to be seen by you in person.

Wednesday and Thursday still remain of the special show-days.

Year=end celebration in the wall-paper store.

A year ago, this wall-paper store was opened. It was something new, and something different. Many folks doubted that it would be possible to buy good and stylish wall-paper in a large general store. But they have found it possible. And pleasant. And economical. And the wall-paper store has grown more and more in favor. We shall observe the ending of this first year of business by offering several lots of wall-paper at prices of un-

These lots are special purchases, bought to great advantage. They are to be sold to your just-as-great advantage.

Bed-room papers in light and dark color effects, nice patterns,—usually 20c,—10c.

High-class papers in tapestry denim and two-toned effects, suited for use in practically any room, usually 30c,

Embossed papers and handsome papers in varnished gold and flowered patterns, make handsome decoration in any room of the house, usually 60c, -30c. Silk fabric papers, rich imported papers, duplex and ingrain papers, all in exclusive and tasteful designs and rich combination of color, many from France and England. sold in exclusive stores at $1 and $1.50,-40c. In addition to these prices, all borders purchased during the week will be cut out free of charge-and cut out borders add wonderfully to the finished appearance of a was in Lakeview cemetery.

The funeral of Patrick Cullen was held this morning from the residence of his son-in-law, Edward Morris of 443 South avenue at 9:30 and from the Sacred Heart church at 9:45 where a high mass was sunn by Father Fitz.

Fourth floor, take elevator.

THE HOWLAND DRY GOODS CO.

Sacred Heart church at 3:45 where a high mass was sung by Father Fitz-gerald. The pall bearers were members of the Holy Name society of the Sacred Heart church. Frederick Toucey died at his home in Stepney, Conn., yesterday at the age of 31 years. He was very well known in his native town of Stepney where he was engaged in farming. BENNETT JUMPED FROM ENGINE

Saw Light Ahead and Thought Collision Was to Occur

George Bennett, aged 24 years, a fireman in the employ of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, jumped from his engine at West Cornwall this morning about 4 o'clock and narrowly escaped death under the wheels of his train. He jumped while the train was going through a cut and wheels of his train. He jumped while the train was going through a cut and struck on a sharp stone, and fell. He began to bleed internally and was put on the 7:35 train to this city where he was placed in the ambulance and taken to the Emergency hospital. Dr. Krause worked over him for a while and then took him to the Bridgeport hospital, where it is thought that a kidney had been injured. Bennett lives in Fairfield.

Only a few facts could be learned lives in Fairfield.

Only a few facts could be learned regarding the accident owing to Bennett's refusal to tell. He refused on the grounds that he knew the company would rather have him say nothing about it. He did tell Dr. Krause, however, that he jumped because he saw a light ahead which he thought was the headlight of another engine.

Remains of Man Killed on Viaduct Unidentified

The remains of the man who was killed last evening on the railroad viaduct about 9 o'clock, are still lying at the morgue of Rourke & Rourke, unidentified. The body of the man was so badly mangled that it may be impossible to identify him. The man was first hit by an east bound express at a point about opposite the Adams Express office, parts of the body being strewn along the tracks to opposite No 2 Engine house on Crescent avenue, where the remnants were picked up. What little remained of the mangled form told that the unfortunate victim was about 35 years of age and in all probability a working man. He HEARING ON GARBAGE NUISANCE in all probability a working man. He had a smooth face, a very good set of teeth, light brown eyes and dark hair. A. T. Dennis & Company, 1155 Main street, announce their showing of ex-clusive styles in fall and winter mil-linery on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. No cards have been issued, and all are cordially in-vited to call and inspect the latest cre-(Special from United Press.)

WINSTED MAN

Winsted, Sept. 21.—While unloading a dumpcart on the estate of B. E. Moore at Highland Lake to-day Charles Wellman, aged 37, was almost instantly killed. He stumbled and fell Mayor Lee to-day signed all the reports of last night's Common Council meeting among them being the report of the Street committee, ordering the beneath the wheels of the heavy cart.

WOMAN KILLED BY WORK TRAIN

Middletown, Conn., Sept. 21.—Anna Markham, aged 19, assistant matron of the town farm, was struck by a work-train on the New Haven road at Poor-house Crossing about 2 miles below this city to-day, and instantly killed.

FINED FOR PLAYING SUNDAY BASEBALL

Wallingford, Sept. 21.—Frank Kennedy, Henry Saunders, James Lynch and Marshall Carroll, members of the local T. A. B. baseball team, were arraigned in the town court today on the charge of playing Sunday baseball. The two first named were fined $20 each and Carroll was fined $10.

DOWNEY NOT TO BLAME FOR DEATH OF EASENCER

Coroner Clifford B. Wilson stated this afternoon that after a thorough investigation in the death of Andrew Bascencer who was killed while riding a bicycle by coming into collision with John J. Downey at East Main and Crescent Streets yesterday morning has decided that young Downey is unblamable and tried his utmost to avert the accident. avert the accident.

PARADE EXPENSIVE SPECTACLE While watching the parade yesterday afternoon on Wall street Bernard Blumberg, the shoe dealer, lost $75 in gold, which was stolen by a pickpocket.

HALPIN STOPS HORSE. Doorman James Halpin at police headquarters distinguished himself yesterday afternoon by preventing a frisky horse from breaking through a plate glass window in the tailor shop opposite police headquarters.

MURPHY BADLY SCALDED.

Pairick Murphy of Fairfield avenue, employed at the Spring Perch Mfg. Co. was scalded on the left side this afternoon, from the arm pit to the hip, by steam escaping from a valve. A call was sent for the ambulance and the Harry Report Americal Murphy. Dr. Harry Bennett dressed Murphy's buras.

KILLED TODAY CALLAHAN AND O'CONNOR SUCCEED THEMSELVES

Mayor Lee to-day appointed David B. O'Connor janitor of the city hall for a period of one year beginning October I. He also appointed Edward L. Callahan watchman of the City hall for a like term. Both appointees succeed themselves.

A. T. DENNIS & CO. Showing of Exclusive Styles in

FALL and WINTER MILLINERY

Will Be Held WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, SEPT. 22, 23, 24, 1909 You Are Cordially Invited to Attend

NO OPENING CARDS 1155 Main Street

HUDSON FULTON CÉLEBRATION

Tickets for the big naval parade Friday, October 1st. The new steel steamer Majestic leaves the foot of West Twenty-first Street, round trip tickets, $3.00. Official program now on sale for 25c at JACKSON'S BOOK SHOP, 986-988 MAIN STREET